

2024 Grand Champion Overall – Hailee Clemens

2024 Reserve Grand Champion Overall – Harper Hues

2024 3rd Place Overall – A. Tyson

Division 1 (5-6 years old):

Grand – Emma Rivera
Reserve – Murdock R.

Division 2 (7-8 years old):

Grand – Ava Rein
Reserve – Liam Evans

Division 3 (9-11 years old):

Grand – Rickard Anderson
Reserve – Kaylee Rascon

Division 4 (12-14 years old):

Grand – A. Tyson
Reserve – Baron Bradley

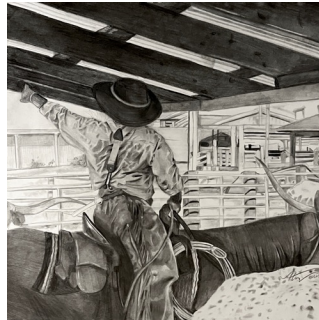

Division 5 (15-18 years old):

Grand – Hailee Clemens
Reserve – Harper Hues

2024 RESERVE GRAND CHAMPION OVERALL

ENTRY #33

Congratulations to this artist on placing RESERVE GRAND OVERALL for the 2024 North Texas Fair & Rodeo Youth Art Competition! In addition, this piece was also awarded Divisional Reserve Grand Champion Over Division 5 and 1ST Place Drawing Division 5.

A note from the judges:

This drawing masterfully captures the essence of its subject with remarkable attention to detail. The portrayal of the boy on the horse is executed with an exceptional level of precision, highlighting the fine textures of both the rider's shirt and the intricate patterns of the horse's mane. The artist's meticulous rendering of the shirt's fabric and the roof panels of the surrounding environment demonstrates a keen eye for detail and craftsmanship. Equally impressive is the attention given to both the foreground and background, seamlessly blending them to create a harmonious and immersive scene. The interplay of light and shadow enhances the depth and realism of the artwork, making it a truly captivating and well-executed piece.

2024 3rd RUNNER UP FOR GRAND CHAMPION OVERALL

ENTRY #43

Congratulations to this artist on placing Divisional Grand Champion Over Division 4 and 1ST Place Painting Division 4. This work was the 3rd runner up for Grand Champion Overall.

A note from the judges:

This painting beautifully captures a serene night scene, with a man walking alongside his horse against the backdrop of a county fair. The artist excels in their attention to detail, particularly in the way the lights of the fair illuminate the edges of both the horse and the man, adding a subtle yet striking highlight that brings them to life. The skillful use of partial blurring in the background lights creates a sense of depth and atmosphere, making the scene feel both expansive and intimate. This careful balance of sharp detail and soft focus enhances the overall mood, showcasing the artist's adeptness at combining technical precision with artistic nuance.

2024 GRAND CHAMPION OVERALL

ENTRY #76

Congratulations to this artist on placing GRAND OVERALL for the 2024 North Texas Fair & Rodeo Youth Art Competition! In addition, this piece was also awarded Divisional Grand Champion Over Division 5 and 1ST Place Painting Division 5.

A note from the judges:

This watercolor painting captures a striking and dynamic moment with exceptional skill. The depiction of the man on horseback is both majestic and lifelike, with the artist expertly utilizing shadows and highlights to bring out the intricate details of the scene. The play of light and dark accentuates the powerful form of the horse and its rider, imbuing them with a sense of motion and presence. The dust rising around the horse adds a touch of realism and energy, enhancing the overall atmosphere of the piece. The artist's mastery of watercolor techniques is evident in the subtle yet impactful use of color and texture, making this artwork a vivid and compelling representation of its subject.